During a half-day retreat this summer, the worship committee came up with a vision statement of what we wish to create in worship.

“We want to create a welcoming place where people can relax into a safe, warm space where they can be refreshed, renewed, inspired, and challenged to build loving community, discover and engage with their faith, and live out their values in the world.”

We had a rich discussion of what that meant for our members, our friends, and our visitors, and how that could be embodied in the service. One of the things we discussed was Joys and Sorrows. What is the goal of this part of the service? How is this practice meeting this goal? Are there other practices that could meet this goal as well, or better, than our current one?

One of the things we discussed was that what we do now obviously works better for some people than others. Extroverts who are comfortable in our community often enjoy this ritual. Other people never get up and share. How are we meeting their need to uphold loved ones in community, or to have a private moment of ritual?

As a result of this conversation, we have decided to expand Joys and Sorrows a bit. First, beginning in mid-September, we will have a space dedicated for individuals to light candles before the service, with a greater degree of privacy. This is a chance for people to light a candle of concern for a friend or family member, to offer thanks for a moment of joy, or in support of a personally meaningful cause. We will have a white board available if you wish to note what your candle is for, and others are encouraged to hold those people in prayer or good thoughts as well. We will encourage people to do this in lieu of some of the current Joys and Sorrows candles, and also offer it as a way to light a candle for those who don't wish to go up on stage.

Another option we will offer is that on the Sundays when Marcia is preaching, she will offer a pastoral prayer that incorporates a space for people to speak aloud the name of a person, or a concern (for example, employment) that they would like held up by the congregation. This will be a good choice for people who wish their concern or their loved one supported by public, community prayer and good wishes.

On the Sundays when Marcia isn't preaching, our usual practice of Joys and Sorrows will remain. We do encourage people to be judicious in their sharing, simply because congregants, and especially visitors, can experience overload when too many people rise to light candles. As a general rule, we ask that individuals share less than once a month, and that these public candles are reserved for major events. We are hopeful that with our new rituals, people's needs for ritual and sharing can be met in other ways as well.

Warmly,
Marcia

Marcia's ministerial committee is up and running! Katy L., Carol B. and Bruce M. welcome your comments, concerns or compliments about Marcia and the job she's doing as our minister.

Getting Connected @ Wy'east

Join the Wy'east Google Groups

Wy'east has two community-wide email lists through Google: "Wyeast" (for news and announcements about church events) and "Wyeast-chat" (an informal way for members and friends to share thoughts or events that are not official church happenings).

To subscribe to these groups, go to www.wyecastuu.org/contact

Wy'east Directory

Wy'east has a directory of contact information for lots of people in the community.

If you don't know where to find the directory, you're probably not in it - emails are sent periodically to everyone in the directory with instructions on how to access it. If you'd like to be added to our directory, contact Betty H. or anyone on the Connections Committee.

Worship Odds & Ends

On Sundays, it is helpful for long-time Wy'easters to sit up front, in the middle, or to the far left in order to be more welcoming to newcomers; it will make room for others who are new, people with children (who may need to make quick escapes), or people who want to discreetly enter after the service begins. Thanks!

The Wy'east worship committee is always dreaming up new ideas for services, speakers and activities. To share ideas or help bring services to life, contact us at wyecast-worship@googlegroups.com or talk to Mark A., Brooke C., Katy L., Amy O., or Marcia S.

If your child wants to light the chalice during a worship service, please contact anyone from the worship committee.

Wy'east Special Collections

OUR THEME FOR THE YEAR

Each year for the past several years, Wy'east has had a theme for our monthly Special Collections, going to support the efforts of mostly local organizations doing good work. This past year, in line with one part of the Unitarian Universalist Association's campaign called Standing on the Side of Love, we donated to Portland and Oregon groups working with immigrants and refugees. This year, in honor of a second part of that same campaign, we are going to donate to groups supporting the LGBTQ community (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer or questioning).

What that will look like is that on the third Sunday of most months this year, we will not only be raising funds for LGBTQ organizations, but inviting someone from those groups to present their programs to us for a few minutes during the services on those days. This is very much a win-win for the presenters and Wy'east, as they get to be acknowledged and we get to be educated.

In addition, as we did last year, Wy'east will continue to have a speaker on our theme every other month as well. This also works to deepen our understanding of the theme.

PORTLAND TWO SPIRIT SOCIETY

In September, our first Special Collection of 2011-2012 will be for Portland Two Spirit Society. From their website: "Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer and Intersex (LGBTQI) are a few terms that describe sexuality and sometimes gender roles. Two Spirit is a term that describes both a traditional Native role as well as sexuality. Two Spirit is a term that many LGBTQI Natives claim as their own, as it encompasses the totality of who they are. Two Spirit is a term that recognizes an equal balance of male and female and doesn't define an individual as one or the other but fluid in both, thereby allowing a broader role in the Native community. Traditionally in many tribes, Two Spirits were the name givers, the historians, healers, leaders, etc., and they were allowed to live as everyone else."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST ASSOCIATION'S NATIONAL ASSOCIATION SUNDAY

CONGREGATIONS

In October, Wy'east will be participating in the Unitarian Universalist Association's National Association Sunday. From the UUA website: "We know that excellence in ministries is the cornerstone of successful congregations and a vibrant, growing Unitarian Universalism. This year, the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA) will partner with the Unitarian Universalist Ministers Association (UUMA), the Unitarian Universalist Musicians Network, the Liberal Religious Educators Association, and other professional organizations to celebrate Association Sunday and to raise funds for the future of our ministries. Donations to Association Sunday 2011 will support scholarships, continuing education, and a comprehensive assessment of our ministries and their needs for the future. Grants from Association Sunday 2011 funds will help religious professionals get ongoing training to support thriving congregations."

UU Adventures in Eating

SUNDAY POTLUCK

Our potlucks will be held on September 11th at 11:30 am and October 9th at 11:30 am. Bring a dish to share.

RESTAURANT ADVENTURE

After our service on the fourth Sunday of each month, those who are interested gather for lunch at a local restaurant. It is an opportunity for lively and topical conversation, and for enjoying the bounty of wonderful restaurant food available in Portland.

Our group varies in size from as few as four to as many as 15, and often includes both adults and children. We announce the month's destination during the service, gather a list of interested congregants, and then call ahead to make reservations.

We try to find places with a variety of moderately priced vegetarian and omnivorous menu items. We have some regular stops on the rotation, and we're always on the lookout for new restaurants to try.

Newsletter News

The Wy'east Beacon is published bi-monthly. The deadline for the November/December issue submissions is Thursday, October 20th. Please put this date on your calendar, and send articles, meeting/event dates, poetry, artwork, book recommendations, favorite spiritual practices, etc. to: wyeast-news-editor@googlegroups.com. If you have any questions, contact Sharai E. or send an email to the above address. Thanks!

To save paper and printing costs, we are printing fewer copies of the newsletter. We encourage you to view it online, at: <http://wyeastuu.org/newsletter>

From the RE Committee...

New Beginnings

As with so many exciting areas of Wy'east, one thing you can count in our Religious Education ("RE") program is change.

We've had lots of change just in the past few months. Liana A., our RE Committee Chair for two years, has stepped into her new position as our Board's Moderator. I'm now honored to fill the Chair role on the committee. We've also added two new members to our committee (thanks, Holly O. and Kate M!).

Also, we've learned that we're going to have to bid Rose T., one of our talented and enthusiastic RE teaching staff, good-bye for a while. She is going on an awesome adventure involving a good friend, a pickup truck with a popup camper canopy, driving around the country visiting friends, family, and beautiful places, and spending the winter someplace sunny. We hope to have her back in a year or two once she's had her fill of sun :-)

Between Rose's trip and Anne S., our childcare provider, graduating from college, we are looking for two staff members. Let me know if you know anybody who is interested in and qualified for caring for and/or teaching our kids!

Some things don't change though. Wy'Camp, our more fun and less-structured program we have run for years each summer, has again been a great success! The kids have had memorable and fun Sundays ranging from sushi making to paper airplane competitions. Thanks to the many Wy'easters who lent their creativity and time to work with the kids in Wy'Camp this summer!

Also, our school-year program will start in September as it always does. September 11, the Sunday after Labor Day, will be the official kick-off date of our RE program year. I, Ashley M., Anders and Holly (who will be working with our older - though not old - children), and hopefully our two new staff members will be ready!

Finally, some change we mindfully create. The RE Committee is placing high emphasis on continuing to meet the needs of our older kids as they grow and change. Our dream is for our sizeable current crop of mostly-elementary-age kids to find tailored, engaging programs waiting for them all the way up through high school. Just think...in not too many years, we could have a thriving high-school youth group!

Contacting RE & the Board of Trustees

Contact the Religious Education Committee Chair if you have questions about our children's programming at Wy'east: wyeast-re@googlegroups.com.

If you have questions for the Wy'east Board of Trustees, you can send an email to wyeast-board@googlegroups.com or talk to any board member (David Tode O., Nancy D., Dan E., Hank H., and Liana A.) on Sundays at church.

MABON CELEBRATION

September 24th 3pm

Amy, Holly, and the O'Brien children would like to invite everyone to celebrate Mabon with them at their new home in Milwaukie (just south of Portland). Mabon is one of eight Pagan holidays and is the celebration of the beginning of the fall season. Arrive at three, and the children and family-friendly ritual will begin at 3:30, followed by a potluck meal. While this will be a kid friendly event you don't need a child to come! Please RSVP with any dietary restrictions as we have a little snack during the ritual: holly@amyandholly.com or 503-502-9051.

September 4     A LATINA LOOKS AT LABOR DAY

Labor activist Mary Mendez, of Enlace (en-lah-say), will talk about her life as an organizer, starting at age 17 in Mexico, when she worked with people in a small community that had no clean water. Mary and the community members got the government to put in 10 new wells for the town. Since then, she has organized in the apple industry in Washington, with garment workers, teachers, and seafood workers in Mexico. Mary is an inspiring teacher of younger organizers.

September 18     RESISTING FEAR

Every day we face a growing epidemic of fear as public officials and media personalities scapegoat communities of color, LGBT, immigrants and refugees. How do we counter this fear and humanize those on the margins? How may our Unitarian Universalist traditions of resistance and liberation be a guide? Together let us bless our love of the "other". Rev. Joseph Santos-Lyons is a local Unitarian Universalist minister and the Coordinator of APANO, the Asian Pacific American Network of Oregon.

September 25     A PRAYER FOR THE WILD SOUL

To pray, the poets often tell us, is simply to open ourselves up enough to let the wonder of the world be heard. Today, we will examine practices that can help us embody this spirit of prayer. Marcia Stanard, our Consulting Minister, leads the service.

October 16 CONFESSIONS OF A COUNTRY BUMPKIN

What makes a meaningful life? Sometimes social messages about prestige and success get in our way of going after what really matters. Raz Mason will share reflections from her recent 4-month adventure as a long-haul truck driver, which brought the counter-cultural decision to move back to Eastern Oregon and reclaim the title of "country bumpkin." Raz is a candidate for UU ministry and is trained as a chaplain. She has master's degrees from Seattle University and Harvard Divinity School.
